Such tests may be conducted, in the discretion of IPI, in addition to or substitution of the Acceptance Test.

8.4 Without prejudice to any other rights which it may have, IPI may reject any item or part of the Works which fails any test conducted under this Clause.

8.5 As soon as the supply of the Works have been completed in accordance with the Contract, and passed the Acceptance Test and/or additional tests where applicable, the Contractor and IPI shall jointly issue a document, herewith called an "Acceptance Certificate" and the date of the Acceptance Certificate shall be the Completion Date.

If stipulated by IPI, there may be a series of phased Completion Dates with separate liquidated damages for each phase as set out in the Appendix. The payment of the liquidated damages pursuant to this Clause will be in full satisfaction of the Contractor's liability for such period of delay but such payments shall not relieve the Contractor from its obligation to supply, deliver, install or commission the Works or from any other liability or obligations under this Contract. IPI reserves the right to charge interest for any delayed payment at the rate of 6% per annum.
- 9.3 If IPI exercises its right under Clause 9.2.3 and the Works or any part thereof is still not supplied and delivered or installed and commissioned within 4 weeks from the Delivery Date or Completion Date, as the case may be, then IPI, without prejudice to its right to payment under Clause 9.2.3, may elect to exercise its right under Clause 9.2.1 or terminate the Contract with immediate effect on giving written notice to the Contractor.

Failure by the Contractor's sub-contractors to fulfill their sub-contracts shall not be regarded as a Force Majeure Event unless the sub-contracts would qualify for exemption from failure if the provisions of this Clause were applied to them. The Contractor shall notify IPI in writing of the said failure within thirty (30) days of the commencement of the event relied upon by the Contractor for his failure to comply with his obligations and shall do everything in its power to resume full performance.
- 13.2 The Contractor shall for the duration of the Force Majeure Event be relieved of any obligation under this Contract as is affected by such event:
- 13.2.1 PROVIDED that the provisions of this Contract shall remain in force with regard to all other obligations under this Contract which are not affected by such event.

Any such item of the Works supplied by others would be deemed as cancelled from this Contract (with the Contract Price being correspondingly reduced) without IPI being liable to the Contractor for damages for such cancellation.

14. Gifts, Inducements and Rewards

IPI shall be entitled to determine the employment of the Contractor under the Contract and to recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such determination, if the Contractor shall have offered or given or agreed to give to any person any gift or consideration of any kind as an inducement or reward for doing or forbearing to do or for having done or forborne to do any action in relation to the obtaining or execution of the Contract with IPI or for showing or forbearing to show favour to any person in relation to any Contract with IPI, or if the like acts shall have been done by any person employed by the Contractor or acting on his behalf (whether with or without the knowledge of the Contractor) or if in relation to any Contract with IPI the Contractor or any person employed by him or acting on his behalf shall have committed any offence under the Penal Code or Prevention of Corruption Act or shall have abetted or attempted to commit such an offence or shall have given any fee or reward the receipt of which is an offence under the Penal Code or the Prevention of Corruption Act.

The Contractor shall not proceed with any works or services that are the subject of such instruction unless IPI has expressly accepted in writing that such instruction entails a variation.
- 15.4 The Contractor shall provide under Clause 15.2 or Clause 15.3 (in the event IPI agrees the instruction constitutes a variation), the Contractor's most competitive prices for IPI taking into consideration deals of similar scope, volumes, service levels and global reach, and benchmarked against the prices for equivalent goods, services, labour, materials, and equipment charged by the Contractor's competitors.
- 15.5 For the avoidance of doubt, IPI shall not be liable for and shall not be obliged to entertain any claims in respect of additional costs arising from any instruction which IPI has not expressly identified and accepted in writing as giving rise to a variation, or for any variation which IPI has not expressly agreed to in writing.
- 15.6 The Contractor shall satisfy IPI as to the reasonableness of changes to the time schedule resulting from the variations. Upon IPI being satisfied regarding the reasonableness of any extensions to the time schedule by the variation, IPI may grant such extension of time as it deems fit.
- 15.7 Upon completion of the variations, the Contractor shall certify in writing to IPI that the variations are completed.

through mediation, arbitration or exclusively in the Singapore Courts. IPI may make the election on its own accord by written notice to the Contractor or within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the Contractor's written notice stating the specific Dispute to be resolved. Should IPI fail to make the election within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the written notice by the Contractor, the Dispute shall be resolved by reference to arbitration and the provisions of Clause 16.3 shall apply. If mediation is so elected by IPI, the Parties shall not proceed to arbitration, litigation or any other form of dispute resolution unless the Parties have made reasonable efforts to resolve the Dispute through mediation in accordance with the mediation rules of the Singapore Mediation Centre, in which case the following provisions shall apply:

16.1.1 The Contractor who receives a notice for mediation from IPI shall consent and participate in the mediation process in accordance with the mediation rules of the Singapore Mediation Centre.

16.2 Any Dispute which is not settled by mediation under Clause 16.1 shall be resolved either by reference to arbitration or exclusively in the Singapore Courts as elected by IPI.

16.3 Pursuant to Clauses 16.1 or 16.2, if arbitration is selected, the following provisions shall apply:

16.3.1 the Dispute shall be resolved by reference to arbitration in Singapore in the English language in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC Rules") for the time being in force which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this Clause.

16.3.3 Either Party may propose to the other the name or names of one or more persons, one of whom would serve as the arbitrator.

16.3.4 If no agreement is reached within thirty (30) days after receipt by one Party of such a proposal from the other, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Chairman of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre.

16.4 Any reference to arbitration under this Clause shall be a submission to arbitration within the meaning of the Arbitration Act for the time being in force in Singapore.

16.5 The application of Part I of the International Arbitration Act, and the Model Law referred thereto, to this Contract is hereby excluded.

17. Indemnification of IPI against Claims by Contractor's Employees
